PLANNING

Curriculum planning is an activity that involves all staff and some outside agencies such as Blackburn College, DW Stadium, Youth Zone, Training 2000, Red Cross, St John Ambulance, Wish Centre, Army school, Lancashire Wildlife Trust, Blackburn Rovers, Open Doors Construction, Morgan Sindell, Fire Service, Premier Inns, Young Enterprise, Army recruitment, North Lancs Training Group

Plans will take into account the issues of:

- The whole experience of the pupil
- Balance, coherence and breadth
- Continuity and progression
- Realism, relevance and appropriateness
- National Curriculum requirements
- Differentiation, taking into account the different rates of progress and an awareness that this is not wholly age-related.
- Equality of curriculum and extra curriculum opportunity
- Assessment, monitoring and evaluation

DELIVERY

The curriculum is primarily the responsibility of the Curriculum subject teacher(s). This is monitored by the Faculty leader and Deputy Headteacher who will ensure delivery.

Planned learning means that the experiences of the pupils are properly resourced, interesting and stimulating and achieve their targets.

Assessment of the progress and development of the pupils is an integral part of the learning process and takes into account Special Educational Needs, cultural diversity and equal opportunities

Records are kept of pupils' achievements and passed on from each stage (where applicable) to ensure continuity.
